If the day of the observed holiday is different from the day of the actual holiday, only those employees working on the day of the actual holiday shall be entitled to this premium pay. Employees shall be paid this premium pay for hours worked beginning at 12:00 a.m. and ending at 11:59 p.m. on the day of the actual holiday. This premium pay shall be paid to employees for a maximum of one shift unless an employee is requested to work overtime by their supervisor.

- B. A non-exempt employee must work the entire scheduled workday before and after the holiday or be in approved pay status the entire scheduled day before and after the holiday (i.e., vacation) in order to receive pay for holiday leave. Unscheduled absences and sick leave shall not count as time worked on the day before and after the holiday unless medical certification is provided by a qualified medical examiner. In the event that the day before or after the holiday is the employee's regular flex day, the unscheduled absences and sick leave taken on the day before or after the flex day shall not count as time worked on the day before and after the holiday (e.g., The July 4th holiday is Thursday and the employee's flex day is Friday, the employee must be in an approved paid status on Wednesday and Monday to receive the holiday pay).

- D. For the purposes of holiday compensation, a day shall equal the number of hours that the employee normally would have worked other than for the holiday.
- E. Floating holidays will be credited to each employee on July 1. Floating holidays cannot be used during the Original Probationary period or during the first six (6) months of employment in the event of a one (1) year original probation and must be used by June 30 of the following year. Any remaining time will be forfeited. Prior approval to take floating holidays must be obtained from the employee's manager/supervisor. In cases where an employee must forfeit their floating holiday at the request of the Agency, the employee shall be compensated for their unused portion at their normal rate of pay at the end of the pay period corresponding with the last pay date in June. The amount of floating holidays credited to employees hired or promoted after the pay period corresponding with the first pay date in July of each year shall be pro-rated based on the number of pay periods remaining in the fiscal year.. Once an employee has tendered their resignation, the employee may not be permitted to utilize floating holidays. Committee shall be made up of 1 representative from each Association and the Employee and Labor Relations Advocate.

Section 13.06. - Vacation Leave

All employees shall accrue vacation leave time but may not use the accrued leave during the same pay period in which said leave is accrued. All original probationary employees shall accrue vacation leave but will not be able to use the accrued leave until completion of the original probationary period or completion of the first six (6) months of employment in the event of a one (1) year original probation. In case of a family emergency, an employee on original probation shall be permitted to utilize accrued vacation leave. Vacation leave is computed and administered as follows:

- A. All employees shall be entitled to accrue vacation leave with pay as follows:

Continuous Months of Service	Continuous Years of Service	Hours Accrued per Pay Period	Hours Accrued per Year	Maximum Accrual
0 - 60	0-5	3.077	80	200
61 - 72	6	3.692	96	288
73 - 84	7	4.308	112	336
85 - 108	8 - 9	4.923	128	384
109 - 180	10 - 14	6.154	160	480
181 - 239	15 - 19	6.769	176	528
240 and thereafter	20+	7.692	200	600

- B. The maximum length of a continuous vacation leave, which is not interrupted by working on the Agency's behalf, shall be equal to twenty (20) working days.
- C. Vacation leave periods which exceed the limits specified in Paragraph C above must be approved in writing by the General Manager, or designated representative(s), and in the best interest of the Agency.
- D. Vacation leave shall be limited to those days already earned by the last day of the vacation period. No advance of vacation leave shall be permitted, without the expressed written consent of the General Manager, or designated representative(s).
- E. Holidays that occur during an employee's vacation period shall not be considered as a vacation day.
- F. In cases where an employee forfeits vacation leave time at the request of the Agency, upon approval of the General Manager, or designated representative(s), said employee shall be compensated for forfeited vacation leave time at the employee's normal rate of pay. It is the employee's responsibility to schedule vacation time well in advance to avoid forfeiting their vacation or to avoid any conflicts.

- G. Employees who are on vacation leave shall be compensated at their normal rate of pay.
- H. Vacation leave shall be pre-approved by the employee's supervisor. The employee's wishes shall be considered in evaluating leave requests; however, the Agency's needs shall take precedence.
- I. Regular and probationary employees who leave Agency employment shall be compensated for all vacation leave time accrued but not yet taken to the maximum of the vacation leave the employee is entitled to accrue. Compensation shall be at the employee's normal rate of pay at the time of separation.
- J. An employee who is on unpaid status as defined in Section 4.30 shall not accrue vacation leave.
- K. Should an employee become ill or injured while on vacation leave, the employee shall be entitled to use sick leave upon approval of the employee's supervisor. The Agency reserves the right to investigate any illness or injury or require verification of any illness or injury for which an employee is claiming sick leave benefits.
- L. An employee must be in a paid status for a minimum of sixty (60) hours per pay period to receive the vacation accrual rates outlined in Section 13.05.A. Vacation accrual rates will be reduced for an employee who is not in a paid status for a minimum of sixty (60) hours per pay period using the following formula:

Accrual rate ÷ 80 hrs/pay period = adjusted accrual rate
 Adjusted accrual rate x hrs paid = reduced accrual amount

For example: An employee in their thirtieth 30th month of employment, who is receiving pay for forty-three (43) hours in a pay period, shall accrue vacation at the following rate:

$$3.077 \div 80 \text{ hrs/pay period} = 0.0385$$

$$0.0385 \times 43 \text{ hours} = 1.6555$$

In this example, the employee would accrue 1.655 hours of vacation, rather than the regular amount of 3.077, for this pay period.

- M. Vacation Leave Cash Out
 - 1) By December 15 of each year, starting in 2024, employees may make an irrevocable election to cash out up to seventy percent (70%) of their annual accrued vacation hours which will be earned in the following calendar year. Cashing out of vacation leave shall only be available to employees who have completed thirty-six (36) months of service before the deadline of the irrevocable election due date.
 - 2) The employee will be paid for the unused accrued vacation hours [up to a maximum of seventy percent (70%) of their annual accrued vacation hours] they irrevocably elected to cash out in June and/or November of the following calendar year. The cash out will be paid at the employee's normal rate of pay in effect during the pay period when the cash out is paid. Cash outs will be made by ACH deposit.
 - 3) If an employee makes an irrevocable election to cash out vacation in the following calendar year and uses vacation in that subsequent year, the vacation used will come from vacation the employee had earned prior to January 1 of the year the employee has elected to cash out vacation. This is to ensure that assuming an employee had a vacation balance prior to January 1, the vacation used will not result in a reduction in the amount of vacation the employee will be eligible to cash out.

- 4) Ad hoc elections for immediate cashouts due to financial hardship
 - a. In addition to the above, starting in 2024, an employee who has an unforeseen emergency is entitled to make a request to Human Resources, or designated representative(s), for a payoff of accrued vacation leave. The amount of vacation leave which may be paid off is limited to the amount necessary to meet the emergency. Additionally, ad hoc elections for immediate cashouts due to financial hardship shall only be available to employees who have completed thirty-six (36) months of service.
 - b. For this purpose, "unforeseen emergency" means a severe financial hardship to the employee resulting from (1) an illness or accident of the employee or the employee's spouse or registered domestic partner, beneficiary, or qualifying tax dependent; or (2) loss of the employee's property due to casualty (including the need to rebuild a home following damage to a home not otherwise covered by insurance).

Section 13.07. - Sick Leave

All regular employees shall accrue sick leave time but may not use the accrued leave during the same pay period in which said leave is accrued. All original probationary employees shall accrue sick leave time; however, such employees will not be able to use the accrued leave until completion of the original probationary period or the first ninety (90) days in the event of a one (1) year original probation, except in emergency situations when approved in writing by the General Manager, or designated representative(s). Should an employee fail to complete the original probationary period, any advance of sick leave shall be deducted from the employee's final pay.

Paid sick leave is a privilege the Agency grants to employees to allow the continuation of pay and fringe benefits in case of personal (or family) illness and, as such, its usage should not be abused. Maintaining good attendance is a condition of employment and an essential function of your job. To minimize hardships that may result from illness or injury, the Agency provides paid sick time benefits in case of personal (or family member) illness/injury. However, periodic sick leave taken on a repeated basis may be viewed as abuse of the system. It is your responsibility to establish legitimate illness or injury to receive sick leave pay. This leave time is computed as follows:

- A. All regular and probationary employees shall accrue sick leave time at the rate of 3.692 hours per pay period or equivalent to ninety-six (96) hours per anniversary year.
- B. Regular employees shall be permitted to expend accrued sick leave time for the following reasons:

- 1) Employee is suffering illness or injury.
 - 2) Employee is placed on quarantine due to exposure to contagious disease.
 - 3) Employee requires medical treatment or examination including, but not limited to, health, dental, or vision.
 - 4) Death in the employee's family member. Up to ten (10) working days of sick leave may be used for bereavement purposes
 - 5) Illness or injury in the employee's family member.
 - 6) Special cases require approval of the General Manager, or designated representative(s).
- C. An employee who is ill or injured may be required to take sick leave if, in the opinion of the employee's supervisor, the employee or co-workers are being exposed to the hazard of illness or injury.
- D. Any employee who needs to take advantage of sick leave benefits shall make every effort to notify their supervisor at least one (1) hour prior to or at the start of their work shift unless the onset of such illness takes place during their shift or during the one (1) hour prior to the start of their shift, at which time they shall notify their supervisor immediately.
- E. No employee is entitled to receive sick leave or benefits from the Agency for any condition arising from or due to employment or business dealings, other than Agency employment, that is undertaken for monetary gain or other consideration.
- F. The Agency reserves the right to investigate any illness or injury or require verification of any illness or injury for which an employee is claiming sick leave benefits including requiring verification by the employee's attending physician, dentist, or other involved medical practitioner. Any sick leave periods for illness or injury which are three (3) or more days in duration may be verified by the employee's physician, dentist, or other involved medical practitioner. If reasonable cause exists, the Agency may require verification from the employee's medical practitioner for absences of less than three (3) days.
- G. All regular and probationary employees may accrue sick leave to an unspecified maximum amount and all accumulated accruals may be carried from one anniversary year to the next.
- H. An employee who is recognized under the terms of this section as ill or injured shall use all accrued sick leave and vacation leave to receive compensation for the time that such illness or injury requires the employee to be absent from work (also see Section 13.03.B).
- The total amount of compensation that will be paid by the Agency is limited to the value of the sum of the employee's accrued sick leave and vacation leave.
- I. Sick leave benefits shall be limited to the accumulated sick leave the employee has accrued by the end of the employee's sick leave period. No sick leave benefit will be paid in advance.

- J. Employees who resign or are laid off from Agency employment after being employed by the Agency for five (5) or more years of continuous regular employment, shall be compensated for accumulated, unused sick leave as follows:

Completed Years Of Continuous Service	Maximum Reimbursable Hours Accruable	Percent Payable

6	360	25%
7	400	35%
8	440	35%
9	480	35%
10	544	50%
11	608	50%
12	672	50%

Completed Years Of Continuous Service	Maximum Reimbursable Hours Accruable	Percent Payable

- M. An employee must be in a paid status for a minimum of sixty (60) hours per pay period to accrue sick leave at the rate of 3.692 hours per pay period. The sick leave accrual rate will be reduced for an employee who is not in a paid status for a minimum of sixty (60) hours per pay period using the following formula:

$$3.692 \div 80 \text{ hrs/pay period} = 0.0462$$

$$0.0462 \times \text{hrs paid} = \text{reduced accrual amount}$$

For example: An employee who is receiving pay for forty-three (43) hours in a pay period, shall accrue sick leave at the following rate:

$$0.0462 \times 43 \text{ hours} = 1.9866$$

In this example, the employee would accrue 1.986 hours of sick leave, rather than the regular amount of 3.692, for this pay period.
- N. Employees shall be entitled to use up to eighty (80) hours of accrued sick leave during any rolling twelve (12)-month period for absences that qualify for "bonding" leave under the Family Medical Leave Act and/or California Family Rights Act. Only employees eligible for "bonding" leave under these laws may utilize up to eighty (80) hours of sick leave for such absences.
- O. Compensation during an Absence from Work: The purpose of Agency Policy A-16 is to establish the procedures for use of sick leave, receipt of monetary compensation during an absence from work due to an illness or injury, and the receipt of leave donated or surrendered to the Agency leave sharing bank. This policy also establishes how employees who are ill or injured can supplement the monetary benefits received from the Agency's Workers' Compensation Program, the State Disability Insurance Fund/Paid Family Leave, and/or the Agency's Long-Term Disability Program.
- P. If an employee is not on approved paid status the day before or after a holiday because of illness, that employee shall nevertheless be eligible to receive holiday pay provided the employee provides a doctor's note proving that they were genuinely sick.
